Card of Thanks to Dr. Chong.

AFTER BEING TREATED FIVE MONTHS by a white doctor, and spending nearly $300, I was worse than when I first went to him. I had quite despaired of being relieved when I read Dr. Chong's Card in THE COLONIST. I placed myself under his care and in NINE DAYS I was a well man. I write this card to discharge a debt of gratitude I owe to Dr Chong whose charges, I may also say, were reasonable. My complaint was neuralgia. WILLIAM MCCORMICK.

Daily British Colonist.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT'R. 8TH, 1872.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants' Exchange, is our authorized Agent n San Francisco.

Land and Population.

The land is for the people; and it should be one of the first duties of a British Columbia administration to provide people for the land. We will not say that it will be impossible for Ministers to give a satisfactory reason to the Legislature for total abstention in respect of this high and important duty; but we do say that we feel utterly at a loss to conceive what valid excuse can be offered. In stating what was done last session and what the Government were required and expected to do during the Parliamentary recess, we shall only be repeating an oft' told tale. And yet the exigences of the case are such that it appears to be our duty to again present the facts before the public. Under the old system of administration the policy of those in power appeared to be to keep population away and reserve the public lands for some unknown object. It was neither surprising nor unreasonable that the people should expect a different spirit and policy under the new form of administration; and the appearance in the Estimates of ten thousand dollars for Immigration purposes, small as the sum was, taken in connection with the fact that "a sound and liberal policy for the encouragement of Immigration" was promised in the Governor's opening Speech, gave color to the belief that public expectation would not be wholly disappointed. But no Immigration policy was submitted to the House; and when, towards the close of the session, the subject was taken up by a Select Committee of the House, the utterances of Ministers were in strange contrast with their promise made in the opening Speech. On the 28th March, 1872, the Select Committee reported as follows:—

"1st, That this House do assent to the terms and conditions agreed to at Ottawa, in Sept. 1871, a printed copy of which is hereto appended.

2nd, That His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor be recommended to appoint a local Board to be called the Board of Immigration, with power to consider and report upon all matters concerning Immigration, and deal generally with the subjects.

3rd, That a sum not exceeding $4,000 by appropriated for the purpose of compiling and circulating information concerning the Province.

4th, That the Government at once offer a premium for the best written pamphlet, setting forth in a concise and popular form the advantages presented by the Province to Immigrants generally; that the manuscript of such pamphlet be placed in the hands of the Board of Immigration to be so appointed within one month of the date of the offer; and that said Board have power to decide upon the respective merits of those submitted, selecting the one which may be deemed entitled to the premium of publication."

This report was adopted nem. con. and an address founded thereon sent to the Governor the same day. One would have thought that a Government professing warm interest in Immigration would not have been slow to carry out the recommendations of the House. But look at the sequel. Months passed before the premium for the pamphlet was offered. Eight gentlemen took the trouble to compete,—less, we are bound to believe, for the sake of the paltry money reward than for the common good. The prize was awarded, wisely and well, doubtless, and we presume duly paid. Months have passed but the pamphlet has not yet seen the light of day! It is easy to see from the tenor of the report that the House felt the necessity for haste. Indeed, to be of use at all, action must be prompt. And yet, with the exception of the steps already detailed,—the sole fruit of which has been the transfer of two hundred and fifty dollars from the Provincial Exchequer to the breeches'-pocket of the successful pamphleteer and a certain expenditure of time and oil on the part of the seven unsuccessful ones—nothing whatever has been done towards carrying out the recommendations of the House. It was felt that a beginning could not be made too soon, and that, under all the circumstances, the best begining would be to circulate such information respecting the country abroad as would enable intending emigrants to form correct conclusions, and provide such machinery at home as would prevent the possibility of immigrants being treated with that cold neglect which has been meted out to them in the past and which we very much fear is still experienced by those few who, in spite of every obstacle, occasionally find their way to British Columbia. But the Legislature proposes, and the Government disposes; and so it has fallen out that the former has been completely frustrated in its good intentions by the latter. Another season has been allowed to pass over without the small beginning being made, and British Columbia continues to be an unknown land in those centres of population from which, if properly known, she might be constantly drawing supplies. It will not be considered necessary that we should dwell upon the importance of population—and when we say population we, of course, include that inevitable stream of capital which accompanies or follows population—to this country. That is a subject which has already been sufficiently discussed, is one would hope sufficiently understood.

One vote, being duplicate, was declared null and void, consequently the number of votes cast was 134, out of some 163 qualified voters.

After the declaration of the state of the poll, the successful candidates came forward amid loud cheers and thanked their comrades. The defeated candidates were also called forward. Mr. F. G. Richard's said that as it has pleased the electors not to make him their Chief, he wished to ask them one question? He had served one year as Assistant Engineer and one year asC hief. Had he done his duty during that period? Those present were unanimous in the opinion that he had. He then assured them that he was satisfied to be defeated as it showed it was not from his neglect of duty but the desire to infuse new blood into office which prompted them to support the successful candidates. Cheers were then given for the defeated candidates.

An excellent collation was spread by the candidates for the refreshment of the electors.

Police Court.

John Cameron, one of the men belonging to the Naworth, on remand on suspicion of being concerned in robbing a shipmate of $40 was discharged. The other man, Harry Franklin, was committed for trial on the same charge.

Two Hydah Indians, charged with fighting in the public streets, were bound over in the sum of $20 to be of good behaviour for three months or to suffer one month's imprisonment.

John Miller, a seaman belonging to the bark Naworth, was charged with threatening to take the life of one of his shipmates, and was remanded for one day.

Steamer Departures.

For the Sound—The steamer North Pacific will leave at 10 a.m. to-day.

For Nanaimo—The steamer Grappler left at 6 o'clock last evening for Nanaimo.

WILSON'S CIRCUS SEIZED FOR DEBT.—We Portland Oregonian of the 4th Oct.) learn from our regular Oregon City correspondent that, as Wilson's Circus, horses and band wagon were passing through that town on the way to the State Fair yesterday morning, the Sheriff served an attachment of $3600 and took possession of them. Omar Kingsley and the principal performers were on route to Salem by the cars. On Kingsley's arrival at the depot he was informed of the state of affairs, and went no further. Three years ago, it will be remembered, a lady named Riley had her arm fractured through the breaking down of the seats at Wilson's circus at a performance in that city. She sued Wilson and obtained $3000 damages Wilson disclaimed any ownership,—and the damages were not collected. This is the first appearance of the same circus since. Chas. E. Warren, Esq., the lady lawyer, had, it appears, quietly waited events and was on hand when they entered town yesterday morning. Mr. Kingsley being in a small place, where he is a stranger, is placed in a difficult position to procure bonds. It is a great loss to the company to be thus detained at State Fair time. The band wagon and one other and about twenty horses are seized. The establishment was detained for one day, when bonds were furnished, and it is now playing at Salem.

DISCOVERY OF ANOTHER VERY RICH SILVER LEAD.—While Mr. Sandford Fleming and party were on their way from Jasper House to Tete Jaune Cache their attention was attracted, while at full speed, by what appeared to be a quartz lead. On closer examination it was discovered to be an extremely rich silver lead; in fact, Mr. Fleming says the ore is the richest he has ever seen. He has brought down some 10 or 12 pounds with his baggage as specimens. We shall doubtless receive further and more precise particulars when Mr. Fleming arrives from the Bute Inlet.

NANAIMO SCHOOL HOUSE.—The Nanaimo Board of School Trustees invited tenders for constructing the new schoolhouse in that town. The tender of Mr. B. Melado being the lowest was accepted, and application has been made to the Government for the necessary grant to cover the expenditure.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.—The Chamber at its meeting yesterday appointed Committees to look into the Pilotage Law and the Postal communication with the East.

ONLY a small Sound Mail arrived yesterday.

Washington Territory.

We compile the following from the Seattle "Intelligencer" and Olympia "Courier."

On the 28th ult., a young man, engaged in logging on Whidby Island, named Bolton, was fatally injured by a large log rolling upon and crushing him about the hips. He was found by his partner, a Mr Donahue, about four hours after the accident, who at once carried him for a considerable distance to their cump. Mr. Donahue then placed the injured man on a mattrass in a small skiff and started alone with him to this city for medical aid. He was some sixty hours on the way here, rowing incessantly each day, arriving here on Tuesday last. When the sufferer reached this place it was found that he was past all relief, and so far gone was he that death from internal hemorrhage ensued the same evening.

Owing to some misunderstanding of signals by the switch-tender on the railroad near McFaddon's, several cars loaded with iron were butted off the end of the switch and one of the cars was badly smashed. Nobody was hurt, but the train was detained several hours to repair damages.

A prominent Republican, at Olympia, bet one thousand dollars in coin, against five hundred dollars, that Garfielde would be next delegate to Congress. The money was put up and is in the hands of Mr. Pray, as stakeholder.

COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.—A gentleman in Olympia during the present week received from some one, whom he cannot now call to mind, a ten-dollar greenback, which after examination at the Bank, was declared counterfeit. It was a note issued by the Farmers' and Manufacturers' National Bank of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The engraving is well done, and likely to deceive good judges. It is well to be on the lookout for these notes.

Col. Rice, brother of Vice-President Rice of the N. P. R. R. Co., arrived on last evening's stage and has since gone on his way down the Sound. Col, Rice has been Vice Consul in Japan for several years and visited the Sound one year ago.

About 2 o'clock on Thursday last the wharf of Stone and Burnett at Seattle gave way plunging the house and all its valuable contents into the bay a total wreck and almost a total loss. The warehouse was filled to its utmost capacity with valuable goods for the fall and winter trade, having but just received the large cargo of the bark Edward James, which was lying at the wharf. Providentially no lives were lost, the men employed in the warehouse not having returned from their dinners. William Kenworthy, the only person upon the wharf at the time, had just driven under the shed a team and large truck belonging to Robert Russell, and at the moment of the fall saved his life by a tremendous leap free from the falling timbers. The horses were knocked down but the truck sustained the fallen roof of the shed until horses and truck were rescued without material damage.

LANE & KURTZ WORKS.—Yesterday Col. Lane received a telegram from the foreman of the above works announcing that the ground was improving as the old channel was approached; but that the volume of water had increased to such an extent as to be a very severe strain upon the present machinery. Col. Lane telegraphed back instructions to pay off all hands and suspend operations until the arrival of the new and powerful machinery. This practically means suspension of these important works till towards spring. While one cannot help feeling a degree of regret that such a step should be rendered necessary, it is gratifying to know that, in every other respect, the indications are very encouraging. It is simply a question of overcoming the water, and we feel assured that the pluck und energy of Lane & Kurtz will overcome that. The temporary suspension of operations, although producing a damping effect, need not, therefore, be regarded as affecting ultimate success.

PRINCE ALFRED'S PASSENGERS.—Following are the passengers booked by the steamship Prince Alfred, which sailed from San Francisco for Victoria on the 5th, with a large freight and 50 passengers: Lumley Franklin, E. A. Bernard, Henry Woodham, Sam. Lingard, J. Barr, J. Vidder, H. S. Hutchinson, C. B. Jennings and wife, C. Pearce, five Sisters of Charity, Father Seghers, Miss R. W. Stanley, Miss M. J. Ragan, Mrs. A. J, Smith, Miss England, Miss A. Hoskins, Miss Pendergast, Mrs. Doane, Capt. Nickels, Mrs. Mitchell, Richard Phillips, A. Fellows, Mrs. Newlands, Mrs. Jamieson and daughter, Miss Jenny Aiken, and 22 passengers in the steerage.

OMINECA.—A private letter from Lost Creek, written Sept. 28th, and received in town on Saturday, says that the Discovery Claim on that creek is the best claim in Omineca. A few claims on Germansen Creek are paying, but generally the country looks gloomy. Duncan McMartin, Jem May, Ike Stevens and Oliver Fontaine have made up a company and intend starting for the headwaters of the Stranger and Osalinska Rivers. They are taking out eight months' provisions. Oliver Fontaine was out there this summer and thinks it a good section for gold. The fate of Omineca hangs on the result of this expedition.

THE NORTH PACIFIC arrived from ports on Puget Sound at 12½ o'clock yesterday bringing a large number of passengers. Among those on board were R. H. Austen, Esq., who we are glad to see looking well after his eastern journey, and his nephew. Also, Mrs. James Curtis, formerly of this city, now of San Francisco, and Mr. Fallon, traveling correspondent of the San Francisco "Bulletin."

BIRDS OF OMEN.—A large flock of cranes passed over the city at 7,30 o'clock last evening bound south. This indicates cold weather to the north.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER. — Sailors of the British and U. S. Navies might be seen fraternizing yesterday in our streets. Is this the result of the Washington Treaty?

H. M. S. Scylla will sail for the South on Monday next.

THE Boxer will leave at 10 o'clock this morning for Cowichan and Nanaimo.

IN CAPITAL ORDER.—The goods landed from the bark Naworth are in excellent order.

FOR SKEENA.—The steamer Otter will leave for Skeena at 5;30 a.m. to-morrow.

THE TERMINUS.—With respect to reports (and there are many afloat) that may be promulgated as to the precise point on the Pacific Coast at which the Canadian Pacific Road will terminate, we have only to say that the question is still an open one and will not be finally decided until after the return of Mr. Fleming to Ottawa.

VESSELS BOUND TO BURRARD INLET.—We learn that the following vessels have been chartered to load at Moody, Dietz & Nelson's Mills at Burrard Inlet: Edward James, for Shanghae; Amelia, for Sydney; Charley, for Shanghae; Seaforth, for Callao; Royal Family, do; Sophie D., do; Eugene Adele, do; Tropigue, do; Jason, do.

WHALING.—Messrs. Wallace & Hutcheson's schooner Dominion arrived yesterday morning from the whaling grounds. The party killed eleven 11 whales and secured 9. They bring about 250 barrels of oil and a ton of whalebone.

THE SURVEYOR GENERALSHIP.—Mr. Pearse yesterday vacated his office at the Lands & Works, where he has so long and faithfully presided. It is said that Mr. Bulkley, Chief Engineer, will succeed Mr. Pearse.

THE BRIDGES.—The new bridges were completed yesterday with the exception of the draws. They are substantial, handsome structures, creditable alike to the contractors and the Lands & Works.

IN ROYAL ROADS.—The English bark Charlie arrived in Royal Roads yesterday afternoon from San Francisco, bound for Moody & Co.'s mill to load lumber for Shanghae.

BOOKS.—The cargo of the Naworth includes a case of between 300 and 400 vols. presented to the library of the Mechanics' Institute by friends. in England, of Mr. T. Allsop of this city.

SEVERAL liberty men belonging to H. M. S Scylla, who had overstaid their leave were arrested yesterday by the Police.

MR MARCUS SMITH accompanies Mr. Fleming and party to Bute Inlet. The Sir James Douglas, with the party, is expected to arrive here on Friday night.

WEEKLY COLONIST.—Copies of this paper, ready for mailing, may be had at the Bookstores and Publication Office to-day.

THE steamer Otter will sail at daylight to-morow for Nanaimo, Comox, Skeena, etc.

THE Edward James was towed from Seattle to Moody's mill by the steamer Favorite, last evening.

THE teamer Enterprise will sail at 9 o'clock this morning for New Westminster.

ASHCROFT RACES take place to-day and to-morrow.

THE FAVORITE.—This handsome schr. is offered for sale.

The Wants of the Interior.

VICTORIA, Oct. 7, 1872.

EDITOR COLONIST:—With two exceptions the settlers of signed a petition to appropriate the $5,000 vote for the Nicola and Kamloops road instead of on the Nicolas river bridge.

NICOLA AND KAMLOOPS WAGGON ROAD,

some 60 miles long could be opened up from a point below Woodward's farm, and place every settler in direct communication with the Trunk Road system of the Mainland by the following expenditure:

Blasting and grading at Gilmore Point.....	$2,500;
Hence round the Lake to Moore's Farm.....	1,500;
Grading of worst places to Kamloops.....	1,000;

Total expenditure, $5,000.

By this distribution of the sum voted a farmer could team his produce to Kamloops via Lytton, and return from that place or vicinity with his winter's stock of groceries, etc.

The settlers are not yet satisfied with the working of the MAIL SERVICE.

The Mail bags are not sealed. They are left open for the convenience of the way settles, and conveyed by Indians, who are faithful enough, but cannot be held responsible, as any one can dip into the Mail bag who wants. This is rather awkward when remittances are forwarded by post.

THE PRESENT POST-OFFICE,

is at the foot of the Lake, and supplies and mail matter to about 20 settlers.

ANOTHER POST OFFICE

Is required at the head of the Lake, say at Messrs. Moore's farm, a central spot, which would accommodate some 15 settlers and save them a ride of 15 to 20 miles after their letters, mails being sent by way of Lyton.

THE STATISTICS

Of the settlement are interesting though at present incomplete. There are 30 white settlers, 10 white women and 22 children. Some 20 bachelors, untrammelled by any "liaison" with native ladies look to Victoria for wives; a good

CATTLE TRAIL

Could be opened to Hope, a distance of some 80 miles, 17 miles only being rough. Good feed all along. This would tap

THE WHOLE INTERIOR CATTLE MARKET.

Cattle could be driven from any point east of the Cascades by way of Fort Hope to a point opposite New Westminster, with feed the whole distance and only one shipment to Victoria, the most important beef market in the Province; and some $150,000 distributed in the interior which now go to Puget Sound, Mr. Dewdney, who has surveyed from Hope to Nicola Lake in the interests of the Canada Railway, states that there are no difficult grades on it.

It is very evident that here should have been located the main trunk road of British Columbia. Starting from Hope by way of Nicola, 10-Mile Creek to Savona's Ferry and thus on to Cache Creek. The first cost, with a trifling appropriation for repairs, would more than build it. While on the subject of cattle trails I would like to know what has been done for the Lillooet and Burrard Inlet trail.

CATTLE TRAILS

Are now wanted in the interior particularly along navigable rivers. The one is a necessity the other a luxury.

Yours, WM. H. KAY.
A Pioneer Settler of the Mainland.

SUNDAY'S DISPATCHES

Europe.

LONDON, October 4.—Mr. Isaac Butt, "Home Rule" member of Parliament for Limerick, delivered a lecture last night in that city, and advocated union. He was moderate in demands for Ireland. He referred to the public declarations of Huntington, Russel, and Montague, as favorable to the cause of Home Rule, and advised a return to Home Rule to members of Parliament. He closed with a declaration that if the demands were rejected they would act, but at present their plans could not be disclosed.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Eastern States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—It is anticipated in official circles that the award of the Geneva Tribunal will be paid before the expiration of 12 months from the time of the decision, this being the limit of the treaty. The money is to be paid to the Department of State, and as there is no law concerning its disposal, legislation by Congress becomes necessary for that purpose.

The only official information concerning the San Juan arbitration is that the decision will be made early this month.

The United States and Spanish Commission, though organized more than a year ago, has not adjudicated any claims. Some of them will be ready for consideration at next meeting of the Commission.

A. Bonell having withdrawn as a candidate for delegateship for District of Columbia, the contest is now between General Chapman Ross, present incumbent and G. Hine, supported by Liberals and Democrats. The election is on Tuesday next.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—The "Time's" special from Knoxville, Tenn., says, serious trouble is apprehended between the authorities of Georgia and the U. S. Government. Gov. Smith has instructed Wafford, Receiver of the Alabama & Chattanooga R. R., not to surrender the road to Judge Harrison and Lewis Reece who are the Receivers appointed by Associate Justice Bradley, of the Supreme Court. They surveyed and took the proper steps to secure Government titles to 3,000 acres of diamond lands. All the party express great faith in the richness of the mines, and brought with them some 800 or more glittering pebbles said to be diamonds. Mining operations were not commenced because there was no water, the season is late and the weather cold. The company want a large force on ground before commencing in earnest. Roberts states that operations will be commenced in the spring, and no stock offered to the public.

Another person, Austin Dulton, has been choked to death by a piece of meat.

Advices by the Australian Mail last night are of little interest.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

Europe.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Sir Charles Dilke lectured at Glasgow last night on Class Legislation. Some danger was apprehended and the authorities made precautionary preparations, but no disturbance occurred.

Lord Redesdale in a letter condemns the conduct of the Government representatives in the Geneva Arbitration, by which he says the interests of the country were sacrificed to those of the Cabinet. He also demands a full explantion of the reasons which prompted the representatives to act as they did.

LONDON, October 4—A terrible accident happened this morning to a passenger train from this city for Edinburgh. While running at a rapid rate it came in collision near Kittlebridge with a freight train, causing the instant death of nine persons. Many others are injured, and it is feared several of them will die.

A few details of the accident have been received. The dispatches state that the train was late and running at a furious rate to make up. The scene of the disaster is not far from Carlisle, the capital of Cumberland county. A train has been sent from that town to bring in the dead and wounded.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—James Dugan arrived yesterday from Sydney, Cape Breton. He reports that on the 9th of Sept. the schooner Lancaster, on which he was a passenger, fell in with an abandoned vessel, on which was found a skeleton crushed in by falling rigging. Five other skeletons, four of which appeared to have been more recent than the other one, were also found. Inquiry seemed to show that all on board perished with hunger. The bowsprit of the vessel bore the name of Glenaloon. Two decomposed corpses were found in the forecastle. The Captain's corpse was found in his stateroom. Nine bodies were found altogether. The papers found on board were given to the authorities at Sydney, with the view of learning the history of the Glenaloon.
